

Trinity United Church of Christ, Berlin, Pennsylvania
The Worship of God at 5 O'clock in the Evening
December 24th, 2020

It is a joy to welcome you to this festive service on Christmas Eve designed especially with families in mind.

There is nothing like the glow of a child at Christmas. The expectation, the hope, and wondering what they will find under the tree this year for Christmas.

Usually, the children and those who are "young at heart" are invited to join me at my rocking chair, however this year, I will be in my "chair" and ask that the children remain with their family this evening. The rocking chair was my late grandmother's rocking chair that I spent many happy hours in as a boy, you will hear about gifts, love, forgiveness, and a promise. It is certain to touch the heart of young and old.

Christmas Offering – as you leave the sanctuary this evening if you wish to give a gift to the Christ child and for the ministry of God's people in this place, you may place it in the offering plate that is held by one of the deacons. If you are a guest or friend, please know that this is our gift to you and we rejoice that you are with us on this Christmas Eve.

Call to Worship

Let us go, in heart and mind, to see what has come to pass. Let us go with the shepherds:

Let us go to find the Savior!

Let us go with the wise ones:

Let us go to find God's promise, born for us!

Let us go with the poor and humble:

Let us go to find our King, born in a lowly manger.

Let us go with all the world, with all the peoples of the nations. Come, let us worship; come, let us adore him:

Christ the Lord!

O Come All Ye Faithful

Lighting of the Christ Candle

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Arise, shine, for your light has come,

And the glory of the Lord has risen upon you.

Hope, Love, Joy, and Peace – Immanuel, God with us, whose light shines in the Christ candle this Christmas.

THE WORD OF GOD

Christmas Eve Psalter

Psalm 96

Oh sing to the LORD a new song;

sing to the LORD, all the earth!

² Sing to the LORD, bless his name; tell of his salvation from day to day.

³ Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples!

⁴ For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; he is to be feared above all gods.

⁵ For all the gods of the peoples are worthless idols, but the LORD made the heavens.

⁶ Splendor and majesty are before him; strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

⁷ Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength!

⁸ Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; bring an offering, and come into his courts!

⁹ Worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness; tremble before him, all the earth!

¹⁰ Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns! Yes, the world is established; it shall never be moved; he will judge the peoples with equity."

¹¹ Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;

let the sea roar, and all that fills it;

¹² let the field exult, and everything in it! Then shall all the trees of the forest sing for joy

¹³ before the LORD, for he comes, for he comes to judge the earth.

He will judge the world in righteousness, and the peoples in his faithfulness.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be, world without end, Amen.

St. Luke 2:1-15

And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed. ² (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) ³ And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. ⁴ And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:) ⁵ To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. ⁶ And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. ⁷ And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn. ⁸ And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. ⁹ And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. ¹⁰ And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. ¹¹ For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. ¹² And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. ¹³ And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

¹⁴ Glory to God in the highest,
And on earth peace,
Good will toward men.

¹⁵ And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Beth-lehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

Gold Paraments signify virtue and the Glory of God. The pulpit fall has the victorious lamb as picture in Revelation 21, the Bible bookmark has the resurrection butterfly, and the communion table notes that Jesus is the “King of Kings!” Pastor’s Stole has the Christmas Rose on one side that represent Jesus “the Light of the World” and on the other side is the Glastonbury Thorn that blooms on Christmas Day and the Lord’s Nativity.

The Organ – For Christmas the Trinity Church rejoices to receive a beautiful Designer Series RL-66 Allen Organ. We are most grateful to Karl, Sr. and Dean Brick [and their assistants] for restoring the pipe façade of the organ chamber. We give thanks to Jason Clark, who engineered and built the audio framework to hold the audio system of the new organ. He worked five evenings to complete this building project. Nothing is going come loose from that framework. Thank you to the congregation for their many generous gifts to the organ fund. This evening we will hear a small sample of new sounds and new ways the instrument will lead us in worship. You may hear bells, angels “humming ‘ah,’” and much more.

The Consistory Makes the following announcement:

Following worship on Christmas Eve the Trinity Church building will be closed through January 18, 2021. This decision was not taken lightly, rather in response to the rising COVID-19 cases in our community. It was thought best to make sure that we were helping to “flatten the curve” rather than taking a risk of being a “super spreader” of the virus. Pastor Dave will be providing a family worship booklet that will arrive later this week in the mail.
